DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 30 is objected to because of the following informalities: The claim depends from cancelled claim 16. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5-7, 20-22 and 30-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hu et al.

There is disclosed in Hu a beverage preparation apparatus, comprising a collecting device 37 having a seat suitable to receive a disposable cartridge 10 containing a soluble product, the cartridge comprising an outlet opening for delivery of a beverage, wherein the outlet opening is defined by at least one breaking line 21 present on a bottom wall of the cartridge, and wherein the collecting device comprises a piercing member 40 to pierce the cartridge at the breaking line and to completely engage the outlet opening formed, and comprising means (channels 42 and a peripheral gap formed between the opening and the piercing member) of regulating delivery of the beverage.

In regards to the delivery of the soluble product for at least seventy five percent of the total dispensing time, it is stated in Hu (col. 16, lines 29-30) that the number of channels can be adjusted accordingly. The number of channels, along with the gap formed between the opening and piercing member, is directly related to the percentage of product dispensed over the total dispensing time. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to adjust the number of channels and/or the gap between the opening and piercing member to provide the claimed results, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-15 and 23-29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 16 March 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the prior art fails to disclose the claimed ratio between the diameter D2 of the engagement portion of the piercing member and the diameter D1 of the outlet opening.

It should be noted that the Hu reference discloses each and every structural element recited in the claim. What Hu does not show is what amounts to the diameter sizes of the piercing member and the opening. Applicant contends that the diameter sizes and the ratio they have to each other result in a more homogenous and uniform beverage product. It is this contention that leads the examiner to the conclusion that the diameter sizes are result effective variables. It has been held that discovering an optimum value of a result effective variable involves only routine skill in the art.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
